Corrections and additions to CORDELL records by MARY DEA CARTER, grand-daughter of MARY ANN CORDELL and ROBERT BOGGESS CARTER. MARY ANN CORDELL (1832-1878) was an own sister of WILLIAM MARION CORDELL. (1830-1909) It is said that there were two other sons of WILLIAM and MARGARET CORDELL--FRANK who died when about fifteen years of age and JOHN who was "bound out to learn a trade" and was lost to his family. We have no written records of these last two sons. There were two half sisters of WILLIAM MARION and MARY ANN CORDELL, who were THANKFUL PAVEY (1815-1898) wife of JACOB BREWER of Vermilion County, Illinois and NANCY PAVEY (b. 1816 d. after 1850) wife of HENRY MARSHALL of Kenton County, Ky. These families frequently visited with each other.

The mother of these CORDELL and PAVEY children was MARGARET CROOK, daughter of JAMES CROOK and NANCY McCARTY. Her name could not have been "ADAMS" though she was always known as sister to SAMUEL ADAMS (1800-1881) when she really was his half-sister. As MARGARET PAVEY, she married WILLIAM CORDILL in Vermilion County, Illinois. The license was issued March 1, 1827 and the return was filed Sept. 18, 1827 (not 1822) by Henry Watson, minister of the Christian Church. Filed with this license is a note written to the County Commissioner granting permission for the marriage of "MARGARET PAVEY my step-daughter" signed by WILLIAM ADAMS with SAMUEL ADAMS as witness to his signature.

WILLIAM ADAMS had married in Harrison County Kentucky in 1799, NANCY McCARTY CROOK. She was the widow of JAMES CROOK who died in 1897. More information regarding the McCARTY-CROOK families may be found in HISTORY OF MCCARTY FAMILY by Mr. Arthur L.
Keith. This is a manuscript in Newberry Library in Chicago, Illinois.
